

My Day at the Central Theatre

Two days ago on Tuesday 12th March Paragots, Trarks and Mee Kats went to the Medway Music Festival. I wack up my dad and he was anoyd. The first thing I did when I got to school was I gon and want to put the suke in my locker then I gon and put on my ristband. After Miss Sahota had dun the redister, I found my parther Riley and we rushed to the coach. On the coach, me and Riley sang songs to gether.

I had butlise in my tumy when I saw the sldage. First me and Riley went and found our seats.
After me and Riley sang songs to the pairtoons. I fort they were amazed. Finally I sang on the sldage all of the pairtoons loved it. They were all clapin and wesling.

At the end of the morning, my throat hurt because all of that singing what I have been dooing.
As soon as we got back from school we ate snacks and watched Bley. The best part of my day was when we sang from the top of are larns because I never been on a stage before. What an
