

"No matter what, our formidable police community will always strike down criminals, especially when they assassinate someone so close to our hearts. He will be seriously punished for his wrong doings! The issue in the Balkans has been persistent for several years now as Austria-Hungary have vanquished multiple de local countries expanding their own terrain. Countries that spoke their own language were compelled to speak Austria-Hungary. This was because Austria-Hungary wanted to be seen under one flag. Different societies were joined such as Black Hand, Young Bosnia and Peoples League in order to drive out the Austria-Hungarians. Motivated and inspired by many agents from Serbias government, military forces and public services, the courageous members of the Black Hand organisation returned to be murdered for acts of terrorism including target shooting, grenade throwing and general murder practice. It was only a matter of

The chauffeur, Ludwig Loy, announced: "I honestly thought that I was going in the right direction, but then I realised that I wasn't, so I began to reverse. I later arrived at the City Hall, where the royals were suddenly shot dead. I tried my hardest to help the dear to the throne, but I was far too late. It's all my fault for taking that wrong turn. I hate myself!" He continued to blame himself for the loss of Archduke Franz Ferdinand and Sophie the Duchessess. However, Sargent Stewart, a no nonsense police officer, was nothing but determined to capture the murderers of our adored royals, he has stated:

time before they executed their mission.

Sargiero has been amazingly shaken after the momentous event that happened in front of their eyes. People agreed that a colossal funeral will be planned in order to show gratitude to our royal couple. Church bells shall also ring, indicating tragic and sudden deaths. Hundreds of thousands of Austria-Hungarian residents have assembled in churches, kneeling down to pay their tributes to the lifeless monarchs. Flowers will then be laid in the exact location of the death of Archduke and the Duchess. Consequently, the attack has significantly expanded European tensions even further.

HEIR TO THE THRONE SHOT DEAD

Archduke of Austria-Hungary unfortunately assassinated by a Serbian high school student.

Exclusively reported by Joel Baah

Yesterday, on June 28th, our beloved Archduke Franz Ferdinand was tragically assassinated. It has been verified that the murderer of Archduke was just a high school student named Princip. It has been reported that the innocent heir to the throne just desired to inspect the Austrian - Hungarian troops.

Archduke and the Duchess safely arrived at the train station of Sarajevo. They were then greeted with a warm welcome from Sarajevo's people. Flags were waved, flowers were gently hurled and the crowd was cheering. There has been a rumour, that within this crowd was a Jew of the Black Hand Society. It appears that a bomb was thrown aiming at Archduke Franz Ferdinand, but was deflected and ended up rolling under a different car. This injured many citizens, however Archduke remained unharmed and continued with his journey. It has been suspected that Franz Ferdinand reconsidered his decisions and decided to visit the injured people in the local hospital. On the way, the driver took a wrong turn, he realised that he had made a major mistake. In order to make up for his error, he began to reverse. Luckily, they arrived at the City Hall. Witnesses explained that this is where Gavrilo Princip was lingering around. As soon as Archduke Franz Ferdinand departed from his open-top car, Princip simply took two steps and mercilessly shot Archduke and the Duchess (Sophia). Franz Ferdinand was shot in the chest and the Duchess in the stomach. They both died.
