BELLA KING SAVES TEACHER FROM ANGRY, EVIL LION!

Pretty, brave Bella

Bella King saved her teacher from a lion and she was eight years old!

Bella King was walking to school on her green, rock-hard, heavy-soled shoes when she saw a small, frowning lion. Bella was shocked when she saw the lion. "I thought he was kind but I knew he was up for something," Bella explained.

Bella was outraged that her teacher, Miss Hopkins had been eaten by a beast. "I saw Miss Hopkins and she was a shade of light green. I knew she was unwell," said Bella. Bella was confused and thought it was a prank, but it was not.

Months later, Bella was hitting the lion and was walking home in her new, furry hoodie. "If Bella was not here I would be dead by now," sobbed Miss Hopkins. Then, Bella was returning home in her new, comfy hoodie.

Swingate Primary School told us that Bella was given five-hundred house points and a month off school. Please advise public to stay away from lions in the future.
