

Dear Yellow Crayon,

Thank you for the letter. I'm sorry if your feeling cross but maybe we can carefully make a new, wonderful picture.

Firstly, I want to apologise. How can I make it up to you? I hope you don't feel sad, unhappy and annoyed. I hope you feel better soon.

Secondly, should we go to the shops and get some more enamorse yellow crayon's please let me no because I don't like when my freind's are sad and frushruted. Let's make a new cute animal picture! or have a warm hug! by the way how many more yellow @ crayon's should I get?

Do you still want to be friend's, please still be my friend. Love from Duncin.
