MY FOOTY FRUSTRATED FOOTBALLS!

On Saturday afternoon at a home in Lerswood, Jude's footballs decided to quit because they were being kicked too much.

On Saturday morning, Jude of Sixty-seven Broom Road, looked out of the window and his football had vanished. Jude looked high, low, left and right and couldn't find it anywhere. "I'm just so frustrated. Jude is kicking us so much that I don't want to be used anymore!" footballs said loudly. Finally Jude found his footballs in the loft. "I didn't know I was kicking my footballs that hard," Jude told reporters. "I will try so hard to make it up to my gootballs. Jude spoke to his gootballs and promised to kick them lighter. Thankfully Jude's gootballs decided to keep letting Jude kick them.

Jude's gootballs felt much better because their not getting hurt anymore. We'll keep you updated if there is any news.

And they were happy that was the end of the story.
