

The Swingate

Journal

Thursday 12th March 2026

Reported by Tabitha

FREDDIE SAW MR GILLET GETTING EATEN HE WAS TRAUMATIZED

now Freddie has a lion beard

When Freddie was going into Mr Gillett's classroom, he was looking forward to sharing his show and tell with the class. To his shock, the big mountain lion was chewing on Mr Gillett's head. Freddie was scared and frozen in shock to what he was seeing. "I was scared by what I was seeing I don't know what to do," said Freddie traumatized.

Last Thursday, an 8 year old school boy saw a mountain lion eating our teacher at Swingate primary school.

On his way to school, Freddie was happily entering the school gates on his hover-board when he saw a mountain lion posing by like the flash towards the class. "I saw a big yellow thing with hair on its neck I didn't know what it was until what happened next," Freddie spoke.

As fast as a spotted cheetah, Freddie ran to Mr Gillett and pinned the lion to the floor. What this reporter can tell you is now Freddie the dog of a lion mane got a beard Mr Gillett has been saved by the teeth of a lion but has brain damage. "I thought the lion was going to take my head off but thanks to Freddie's strong hand in time said Mr Gillett

An interview with Mrs Davis the deputy headteacher at Svingat primary school, will be published in the next edition of Svingat Squid.