

Dear Beige Crayon,

Thank you for your emotional letter. I'm sorry you feel frustrated. I'd like to make you happy again.

First, when I'd read your letter I felt so sad. How thoughtless of me! I didn't realize that you want to be yellow more. I will yellow more.

Secondly I promise I will draw big things. You and me could draw a farm with Beige wheat. How does it sound to you? Is your hat a rather idea? Let me know.

I like to apologise again.

Your friend Lucas.
