Ephrain

Once my plane starts to fly you will know that you will die
When my bombs start to explode
We will need to have a reload.

Get so high My ears will die bet the German plane will say good bye Although we start to fade
We won't stop till the end of day

Every bomb that hits the ground the game is starting to be extra loud as all the planes start to crash its now freightening for the clash

3...2...1... Release the bombs all of that just for one cause BOOM CRASH ZOOM!
Just you wait for the biggest Kaboom.

My friends will die
up in the sky
one more I have store and maybe with an extra bore.
