

World War II

As I am waiting on the German plane,
I am going to end Britains reign.
Surrounded by my dangerous friends,
waiting for pain to descend.

Higher, higher I will go,
before I dive down below.
3...2...1...,
Their lives have gone and I have won.

As I dive for my rivals,
the British won't have survival.
I fall with a crackling sound,
as I get closer to the ground.

As I exploded,
the British guns haven't reloaded.
Now you see my evil side,
lots of British have died.

Now my time has come,
I hope Germany have won.
Now I need to go,
Am I sorry for what I have done? NO!!
